

John McDonnell:

The Most Successful Coach in NCAA History

NEW BOOK RELEASE: (March 2013) John McDonnell: the Most Successful Coach in NCAA History by Andrew Maloney and John McDonnell coached at the University of Arkansas for 36 years, during which time he amassed a staggering résumé of accomplishments, including 40 national championships (11 cross country, 19 indoor track, and 10 outdoor track), the most by any coach in any sport in NCAA history. His teams at Arkansas won the triple crown (a national championship in cross country, indoor track, and outdoor track in a single school year) a record five times.

The Razorbacks also won 83 conference championships (37 in the former Southwest Conference and 46 in the Southeastern Conference), including 34 consecutive conference championships in cross country from 1974 to 2008. McDonnell coached 185 All-Americans, 54 individual national champions, and 23 Olympians. And from 1984 to 1995, his Razorback teams won 12 consecutive NCAA Indoor Track Championships, the longest streak of national titles by any school in any sport in NCAA history.

This autobiography tells the story of McDonnell's life and legacy, from his childhood growing up on a farm in 1940s in County Mayo, Ireland, to his own running career, to the beginnings of his life as a coach, to all the great athletes he mentored along the way, John McDonnell is the greatest NCAA coach ever in any sport. John McDonnell was the head coach of the Arkansas Razorback men's track and field teams from 1978 until his retirement in 2008.
